NOLDE WILL NOT YIELD TO STRIKE

Five of the Nolde Brothers Are All Practical Bakers.

Will Sell Out Before He Wil Give in to Demands.

J. H. Nolde, baker, is not a man to be terrified by strikes, nor has he need of Farley or any one else as strikebreakers "I have five brothers," said ..ir. Nolde

"and all of us are practical bakers, If things should come to the worst, it looks like we could run the shop without going

As it is there has been no occasion for the brothers Nolde to return to their trade. They had seven men at wor last night with affairs running smooth-ly and fourteen applications on file from bakers who are carnestly praying for work.

On Monday, Mr. Nolde posted the following notice in his work rooms:
Richmond, Va., March 6, 1905,
On and after March the 7th this bakery
will be conducted on the "Open Shop Plan." All parties wishing to remain in my employ under those conditions, must notify me by 12 o'clock neen, March the 7th

must notify me by 12 o clock near, antentine 7th.

All employes will receive an increase of $1 per week, the hours for work to remain as at present.

The men in the shop struck and left the bakery. Mr. Nolde put new men in their places and gave out this statement: "I have not violated any agreement with my men. On the other hand it was the union that caused us to take the step which I have taken; as I was continually annoyed by triling demands. "The question of wages was never involved. Some of the men got better wages than the scale called for. I am determined to manage my own business in my own way or sell out."

Sale of Synagogue Ratified. The Sir Moses Montiflore congregation, at a meeting held last night, ratifled the purchase of the old Beth Ahaba Synngogue, and instructed their committee to close the purchase.

The committee was also instructed to sel the Mayo Street Synapogue, one of the oldest in this country.

The Beth Ahaba sale was made by Messrs.
Henry S. Hutzler & Co.

THE GRIP.

"Before we can sympathize with others, we must have suffered ourselves," No one can describe to you the suffering attending an attack of the grip, unless you have had the actual experience. There is probably no disease that causes so much physical and mental agony, or which so successfully defies medical nid. All danger from the grip, however, may be avoided by the prompt use of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Among the tens of thousands who have used this remedy, of thousands who have used this remedy not one case has ever been reported that has resulted in pneumonia or that has not recovered. For sale by all druggists.
